

VESPERS FOR THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD

Priest: Blessed is our God always, now and ever and to the ages of ages.

Reader: Amen.

Priest: Glory to you, our God, glory to you.

Heavenly king, comforter, Spirit of the Truth, who are everywhere present and fill all things, treasury of good things and giver of life, come and tabernacle in us, and cleanse us from every impurity, and save our souls, O Good One.

Reader: Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us. (3)

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

All-holy Trinity, have mercy on us. Lord, cleanse our sins. Master, pardon our transgressions. Holy One, watch over and heal our infirmities, for your name's sake.

Lord, have mercy. (3)

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

Priest: For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit now and ever and to the ages of ages.

Reader: Amen. Lord, have mercy. (12)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Come, let us worship God our King.

Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ, our King and our God.

Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ Himself, our King and our God.

Psalm 103

Bless the LORD, O my soul! O LORD my God, you are very great! You are clothed with honor and majesty, who cover yourself with light as with a garment, who have stretched out the heavens like a tent, who have laid the beams of your chambers on the waters, who make the clouds your chariot, who ride on the wings of the wind, who make the winds your messengers, fire and flame your ministers.

You set the earth on its foundations, so that it should never be shaken. You covered it with the deep as with a garment; the waters stood above the mountains. At your rebuke they fled; at the sound of your thunder they took to flight. The mountains rose, the valleys sank down to the place which you appointed for them. You set a bound which they should not pass, so that they might not again cover the earth.

You make springs gush forth in the valleys; they flow between the hills, they give drink to every beast of the field; the wild asses quench their thirst. By them the birds of the air have their habitation; they sing among the branches.

From your lofty abode you water the mountains; the earth is satisfied with the fruit of your work. You cause the grass to grow for the cattle, and plants for man to cultivate, that he may bring forth food from the earth, and wine to gladden the heart of man, oil to make his face shine, and bread to strengthen man's heart.

The trees of the LORD are watered abundantly, the cedars of Lebanon which he planted. In them the birds build their nests; the stork has her home in the fir trees. The high mountains are for the wild goats; the rocks are a refuge for the badgers. You have made the moon to mark the seasons; the sun knows its time for setting.

You make darkness, and it is night, when all the beasts of the forest creep forth. The young lions roar for their prey, seeking their food from God. When the sun rises, they get them away and lie down in their dens. Man goes forth to his work and to his labor until the evening.

O LORD, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures. Yonder is the sea, great and wide, which teems with things innumerable, living things both small and great. There go the ships, and Leviathan which you formed to sport in it. These all look to you, to give them their food in due season.

When you give to them, they gather it up; when you open your hand, they are filled with good things. When you hide your face, they are dismayed; when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust. When you send forth your Spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the ground.

May the glory of the LORD endure for ever, may the LORD rejoice in his works, who looks on the earth and it trembles, who touches the mountains and they smoke!

I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have being. May my meditation be pleasing to him, for I rejoice in the LORD.

Let sinners be consumed from the earth, and let the wicked be no more! Bless the LORD, O my soul! Praise the LORD!

The sun knows its time for setting. You make darkness and it is night. O Lord, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all!

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Glory to you, O God! (thrice)

The Litany of Peace

Deacon: In peace let us pray to the Lord.

Choir: Lord, have mercy. (and after each petition)

For the peace from above and for the salvation of our souls, let us pray to the Lord.

For the peace of the whole world, for the stability of the holy Churches of God, and for the union of all, let us pray to the Lord.

For this holy house and for those who enter it with faith, reverence, and the fear of God, let us pray to the Lord.

For our Archbishop and Father _____, for the honorable priesthood, the diaconate in Christ, for all the clergy and the people, let us pray to the Lord.

For the civil authorities of this country, and those serving in its armed forces, let us pray to the Lord.

For this city, for every city, monastery, and countryside, and for those who in faith dwell in them, let us pray to the Lord.

For good temperance of the air, abundance of the fruits of the earth, and for peaceful seasons, let us pray to the Lord.

For travelers by land, sea, and air, the sick, the suffering, the imprisoned, and for their salvation, let us pray to the Lord.

For our deliverance from all affliction, wrath, danger, and necessity, let us pray to the Lord.

Help us, save us, have mercy on us, and keep us, O God, by your grace.

Remembering our all-holy, pure, most blessed, and glorious Lady, the Birthgiver of God and Ever-Virgin Mary, with all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one other, and our whole life to Christ God.

Choir: To you, O Lord.

Priest: For to you is due all glory, honor, and worship, to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages.

Choir: Amen.

Psalm 140 (Tone 2)

Lord, I call upon You, hear me!

Hear me, O Lord!

Lord, I call upon You, hear me!

Receive the voice of my prayer,

when I call upon You!

Hear me, O Lord!

Let my prayer arise in Your sight as incense, and let the lifting up of my hands

be an evening sacrifice!

Hear me, O Lord!

Reader: Set a watch, O Lord, on my mouth, and a strong door about my lips.

Incline not my heart to evil things, to employ pretexts for sins, with men who work iniquity: and let me not unite with their choice ones.

The righteous shall chasten me with mercy, and reprove me: but let not the oil of the sinner anoint my head: for yet shall my prayer also be in their pleasures.

Their mighty ones have been swallowed up near the rock: they shall hear my words, for they are sweet.

As a lump of earth is crushed upon the ground, our bones have been scattered by the mouth of the grave.

For my eyes are to you, O Lord God: I have hoped in you; take not away my life.

Keep me from the snare which they have set for me, and from the stumbling blocks of those who work iniquity.

Sinners shall fall by their own net: I am alone until I shall escape.

Psalm 141

I cried to the Lord with my voice; with my voice I made supplication to the Lord.

I will pour out before him my supplication: I will declare before him my affliction.

When my spirit was fainting within me, then you knew my paths; in the very way wherein I was walking, they hid a snare for me.

I looked on my right hand, and behold, for there was none that noticed me; refuge failed me; and there was none that cared for my soul.

I cried unto you, O Lord, and said, you are my hope, my portion in the land of the living.

Attend to my supplication, for I am brought very low; deliver me from those who persecute me; for they are stronger than I.

Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks to your name!

The righteous await me for you will deal bountifully with me.

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord! Lord, hear my voice.

Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.

STICHERA

v. (8) Out of the depths I cry to You, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice! Tone 2

Come, let us greatly rejoice in the Lord,

as we sing of this present mystery:

the wall that divided God from man has been destroyed;

the flaming sword withdraws from Eden's gate;

the Cherubim withdraw from the Tree of Life;

and I, who had been cast out through my disobedience,

now feast on the delights of Paradise:

for today the Father's perfect Image,

marked with the stamp of His eternity,

has taken the form of a servant.

Without undergoing change He is born from an unwedded mother;

He was true God, and He remains the same, but through His love for mankind, / He has become what He never was: true man. / Come, O faithful, let us cry to Him: / "O God, born of the Virgin, have mercy on us!"

v. (7) Let Your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications!

Come, let us greatly rejoice in the Lord,
as we sing of this present mystery:
the wall that divided God from man has been destroyed;
the flaming sword withdraws from Eden's gate;
the Cherubim withdraw from the Tree of Life;
and I, who had been cast out through my disobedience,
now feast on the delights of Paradise:
for today the Father's perfect Image,
marked with the stamp of His eternity,
has taken the form of a servant.
Without undergoing change He is born from an unwedded mother;
He was true God, and He remains the same,
but through His love for mankind,
He has become what He never was: true man.
Come, O faithful, let us cry to Him://
"O God, born of the Virgin, have mercy on us!"

v. (6) If You, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with You. (by Anatolius)

When the Lord Jesus was born of the Holy Virgin,
the whole universe was filled with light.
The shepherds watched in the fields.
The Wise Men worshipped, and the Angels sang.
But Herod was troubled,
for God had appeared in the flesh.// He is the Savior of our souls.

v. (5) For Your Name's sake I wait for You, O Lord. My soul has waited for Your word; my soul has hoped on the Lord.

When the Lord Jesus was born of the Holy Virgin,
the whole universe was filled with light.
The shepherds watched in the fields.
The Wise Men worshipped, and the Angels sang.
But Herod was troubled,
for God had appeared in the flesh.//
He is the Savior of our souls.

*v. (4) From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch, let Israel hope on the Lord!
Your Kingdom endures forever, O Christ our God./ Your rule is from age to age. / Made flesh by the Holy Spirit,/ made man of the ever-virgin Mary, / You have filled all creation with joy./ The light of Your coming has shone on us; / every living creature praises You, / the Image of the Father's glory. / Light of Light, the radiance of the Father, / the same yesterday, today, and forever,
You have shone forth from the Virgin.// O God, have mercy on us!*

v. (3) For with the Lord there is mercy and with Him is plenteous redemption, and He will deliver Israel from all his iniquities.

Your Kingdom endures forever, O Christ our God.
Your rule is from age to age.
Made flesh by the Holy Spirit,
made man of the ever-virgin Mary,
You have filled all creation with joy.
The light of Your coming has shone on us;
every living creature praises You,
the Image of the Father's glory.
Light of Light, the radiance of the Father,
the same yesterday, today, and forever,
You have shone forth from the Virgin. // O God, have mercy on us!

v. (2) Praise the Lord, all nations! Praise Him, all peoples!

What shall we offer You, O Christ,
Who for our sakes have appeared on earth as a man?
Every creature made by You offers You thanks:
the Angels offer a hymn; the heavens, a star;
the Wise Men, gifts; the shepherds, their wonder;
the earth, its cave; the wilderness, a manger,
and we offer You a virgin Mother! // O Pre-eternal God, have mercy on us!

v. (1) For His mercy is confirmed on us, and the truth of the Lord endures forever.

What shall we offer You, O Christ,
Who for our sakes have appeared on earth as a man?
Every creature made by You offers You thanks:
the Angels offer a hymn; the heavens, a star;
the Wise Men, gifts; the shepherds, their wonder;
the earth, its cave; the wilderness, a manger,
and we offer You a virgin Mother! //
O Pre-eternal God, have mercy on us!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Tone 2 When Augustus ruled alone upon the earth,
the many kingdoms of men came to an end,
and when You were made man of the pure Virgin,
the many gods of idolatry were destroyed.
The cities of the world passed under one single rule, and the nations came to believe in one sovereign Godhead.
The peoples were enrolled by the decree of Caesar, and we the faithful were enrolled in the name of the Godhead,
When You, our God, were made man.
Great is Your mercy, O Lord, glory to You!

Deacon: Wisdom!
Reader: The reading is from Genesis (1:1-13)
Deacon: Let us attend!
Reader: In the beginning God made the heaven and the earth. Now the earth was invisible and unformed, and darkness was upon the deep and the Spirit of God was borne upon the water. And God said, 'Let there be light', and there was light. And God saw the light, that it was good; and God made a separation between the light and the darkness. And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night; and there was evening and there was morning, one day. And God said, 'Let there be a firmament in the midst of the water and let there be a separation between the water and the water'; and it was so. And God made the firmament. And God made a separation between the water, which was below the firmament, and between the water which was above the firmament. And God called the firmament Heaven; and God saw that it was good, and there was evening and there was morning, a second day. And God said, 'Let the water below heaven be gathered together into one gathering, and let dry land appear'; and it was so. And the water below heaven was gathered together into their gatherings, and the dry land appeared. And God called the dry land Earth, and the accumulations of the waters he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. And God said, 'Let the earth sprout herb of grass, sowing seed according to its kind and according to its likeness, and fruiting tree making fruit, whose seed is in it according to its kind upon the earth'; and it was so. And the earth brought forth herb of grass, sowing seed according to its kind and according to its likeness, and fruiting tree making fruit, whose seed was in it according to its kind upon the earth, and God saw that it was good. And there was evening and morning, a third day.

Tone 6 Troparion

In the secrecy of a cave You were born,
but heaven spoke openly through a star, revealing You to all, O Savior.
The star led the Wise Men to worship You; //
as on them, O Lord, have mercy on us!

V. His foundations – on the holy mountains. The Lord loves the gates of Sion, above all the tents of Jacob. (Ps. 86:1)

The star led the Wise Men to worship You; // as on them, O Lord, have mercy on us!

V. Glorified things were spoken about you, city of God. I will remember Raav and Babylon to the ones who know me. (Ps. 86:2-3)

The star led the Wise Men to worship You; // as on them, O Lord, have mercy on us!

V. Behold, ones of a different tribe and Tyre and a people of Ethiopians, these were born there. (Ps. 86:4a)

The star led the Wise Men to worship You; // as on them, O Lord, have mercy on us!

V. Mother Sion, a man will say, and man was born in her, and himself founded her, the Most High. (Ps. 86:4b-5)

The star led the Wise Men to worship You; //
as on them, O Lord, have mercy on us!

V. The Lord will give account in writing of peoples and of these rulers, of the ones born in her. In you – the dwelling of all, gladdened. (Ps. 86:6-7)

The star led the Wise Men to worship You; // as on them, O Lord, have mercy on us!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Amen. In the secrecy of a cave You were born,

but heaven spoke openly through a star, revealing You to all, O Savior.

The star led the Wise Men to worship You; // as on them, O Lord, have mercy on us!

Deacon: Wisdom!

Reader: The reading from the prophecy of Isaias (9:6-7)

Deacon: Let us attend!

Reader: A child has been born for us, a son has been given to us; whose government is upon his shoulder, and his name will be called “Angel of Great Counsel, Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Potentate, Prince of Peace, Father of the age to come.” For I will bring peace upon princes, peace and health to him. Great his government, and of his peace there is no bound, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with judgement and with justice from henceforth and for ever more. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Tone 6 Troparion

From a virgin You rose, O Christ, / our spiritual Sun of Righteousness. / Though nothing can contain You, / a star revealed You as contained in a cave. / You have led the Wise Men to worship You; // With them we magnify You: “O Giver of Life, glory to You!”

V. The Lord reigned, he was clothed with comeliness, the Lord was clothed with power, and girded himself. (Ps. 92:1)

You have led the Wise Men to worship You; // With them we magnify You: “O Giver of Life, glory to You!”

V. For indeed he made the world firm, which will not be shaken. Your throne – prepared from then on, you are from the age. (Ps. 92:2-3)

You have led the Wise Men to worship You; // With them we magnify You: “O Giver of Life, glory to You!”

V. The rivers lifted up, O Lord, the rivers lifted up their voices. The rivers will lift up their poundings, from sounds of many waters. (Ps. 92:4-5)

You have led the Wise Men to worship You; //
With them we magnify You: “O Giver of Life, glory to You!”

V. Wondrous are the risings of the sea, the Lord is wondrous in those on high. Your testimonies were made very faithful. (Ps. 92:6-7a)

You have led the Wise Men to worship You; //
With them we magnify You: “O Giver of Life, glory to You!”

V. To your house is due sanctification, O Lord, to length of days. (Ps. 92:7b)

You have led the Wise Men to worship You; //
With them we magnify You: “O Giver of Life, glory to You!”

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

From a virgin You rose, O Christ, / our spiritual Sun of Righteousness. / Though nothing can contain You, / a star revealed You as contained in a cave. / You have led the Wise Men to worship You; // With them we magnify You: “O Giver of Life, glory to You!”

Reader: The Reading is from the Prophecy of Isaias (7:10-16, 8:1-4, 8-10)

Deacon: Let us attend!

Reader: Again the Lord spoke to Ahaz, 'Ask a sign of the Lord your God; in the depth or in the height.' But Ahaz said, 'I will not ask, and I will not put the Lord to the test.' And he [Isaias] said, 'Hear then, O house of David! Is it a little thing for you to contend with men, and how do you contend with the Lord? Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel. He shall eat butter and honey before he knows how to prefer evil or choose good. For before the child knows good or evil, he refuses the evil to choose the good. Then the Lord said to me, "Take for yourself a large new volume and write upon it in with a man's pen, Of making a rapid plunder of spoils; for it is at hand. And get me witnesses, reliable men, Urias the priest and Zacharias the son of Barachias. And I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. Then the Lord said to me, "Call his name Despoil-quickly-plunder-rapidly; for before the child knows how to cry 'Father' or 'Mother,' he will take the power of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria before the king of the Assyrians." Know you nations and be worsted; give ear, as far as the extremity of the earth; for if again you have become strong, again you will be worsted. And whatever counsel you take, the Lord will scatter it; and whatever word you speak, it will not remain in you, for God is with us.'

The Little Litany

Deacon: Again and again, in peace, let us pray to the Lord.

Chanter: Lord, have mercy.

Deacon: Help us, save us, have mercy on us, and keep us, O God, by your grace.

Chanter: Lord, have mercy.

Deacon: Remembering our all-holy, pure, most blessed, and glorious Lady, the Birthgiver of God and Ever-Virgin Mary, with all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another, and our whole life to Christ our God.

Chanter: To you, O Lord.

Deacon: Let us attend!

Reader: In many and varied ways God spoke of old to our fathers by the prophets; but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the ages. He is the radiance of his glory and the very imprint of his substance, upholding the universe by the word of his power. When he had made purification for our sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has obtained is more excellent than theirs. For to which of the angels did God ever say, ‘You are my Son, today I have begotten you’? Or again, ‘I will be to him a father, and he shall be to me a son’? And again, when he brings the first-born into the world, he says, ‘Let all God’s angels worship him.’ Of the angels he says, ‘Who makes his angels spirits and his ministers flames of fire.’ But to the Son he says, ‘Your throne, O God, is to age on age, the sceptre of justice is the sceptre of your kingdom. You have loved justice and hated iniquity; therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your comrades.’ And, ‘You, Lord, founded the earth in the beginning, and the heavens are the work of your hands; they will perish, but you remain; they will all grow old like a garment, like a mantle you will roll them up, and they will be changed. But you are the same, and your years will never end.’

v: From the womb before the morning-star I have begotten you. (Psalm 109:4a)

The reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke.(2:1-20)

In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be enrolled. This was the first enrollment, when Quirin’i-us was governor of Syria. And all went to be enrolled, each to his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, to be enrolled with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child. And while they were there, the time came for her to be delivered. And she gave birth to her first-born son and wrapped him in swaddling cloths, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. And in that region there were shepherds out in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were filled with fear. And the angel said to them, "Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good news of a great joy which will come to all the people; for to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find a babe wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among men with whom he is pleased!" When the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us." And they went with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they saw it they made known the saying which had been told them concerning this child; and all who heard it wondered at what the shepherds told them. But Mary kept all these things, pondering them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

The Augmented Litany

Deacon: Let us all say from our whole soul and from our whole mind, let us say.

Chanter: Lord, have mercy.

Deacon: Lord ruler-of-all, God of our fathers, we pray you, hear and have mercy.

Chanter: Lord, have mercy.

Deacon: Have mercy on us, O God, according to your great mercy, we pray you, hear and have mercy.

Chanter: Lord, have mercy. (3) (and after each petition)

Deacon: Again we pray for pious and right-glorifying Christians.

Deacon: Again we pray for our Archbishop and Father (name).

Deacon: Again we pray for our brethren, priests, ieromonks, deacons, ierodeacons, and monastics, and for all our brotherhood in Christ.

Deacon: Again we pray for mercy, life, peace, health, salvation, care, and the pardon and remission of the sins of the servants of God ____, and of all pious and right-glorifying Christians who dwell in or visit this town, and the members, stewards, founders, and benefactors of this holy church.

Deacon: Again we pray for the blessed and ever-remembered founders of this holy house and for all our right-glorifying fathers and brethren who are in their rest before us especially remembering ____, who piously lie asleep here and everywhere.

Deacon: Again we pray for those who bring offerings and those who make acceptable sacrifices in this holy and all-venerable temple, for those who labor, those who sing, and all the people standing here, awaiting the great and rich mercy that is from you.

Priest: For you are a merciful God and love mankind, and to you we send up glory, to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages.

Chanter: Amen.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this evening without sin.

Blessed are you, O Lord God of our fathers, and praised and glorified is your name forever. Amen.

Let your mercy, O Lord, be upon us as we have set our hope on you.

Blessed are you, O Lord, teach me your statutes.

Blessed are you, O Master, let me understand your statutes.

Blessed are you, O Holy One, enlighten me with your statutes.

Your mercy, O Lord, endures forever; Do not despise the works of your hands.

To you is due praise, to you is due a song. To you is due glory: to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and to the ages of ages. Amen.

The Litany of Vespers

Deacon: Let us complete our evening supplication to the Lord.

Chanter: Lord, have mercy.

Help us, save us, have mercy on us and keep us, O God, by your grace.

Chanter: Lord, have mercy.

The whole evening, perfect, holy, peaceful, and sinless, let us ask of the Lord.

Chanter: Grant this, O Lord. (and after each petition)

An angel of peace, faithful guide, guardian of our souls and bodies, let us ask of the Lord.

Pardon and remission of our sins and transgressions, let us ask of the Lord.

The things good and profitable for our souls, and peace for the world, let us ask of the Lord.

To complete the remaining time of our life in peace and repentance, let us ask of the Lord.

The completions of our life to be Christian, painless, blameless, and peaceful; and a good defense before the fearful judgment seat of Christ, let us ask.

Remembering our all-holy, pure, most blessed, and glorious Lady, the Birthgiver of God and ever-virgin Mary, with all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another, and our whole life to Christ God.

Chanter: To you, O Lord.

Priest: For you are a good God and love mankind and to you we send up glory, to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages.

Chanter: Amen.

Priest: Peace to all.

Chanter: And to your spirit.

Deacon: Let us bow our heads unto the Lord.

Chanter: To you, O Lord.

Priest: Lord our God, who bowed the heavens and came down for the salvation of the human race, look upon your servants and upon your inheritance, for to you, the fearful judge who love mankind, have your servants bowed their heads and bent their necks, not awaiting help from men, but looking for your mercy and longing for your salvation; keep them at every moment, both during this present evening and the approaching night from every enemy, from every adverse work of the devil, and from vain thoughts and evil imaginations.

Blessed and glorified be the dominion of your kingdom, of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages.

Chanter: Amen.

APOSTICHA

Tone 2 A great and marvelous wonder has come to pass this day:

A virgin bears a child, and her womb suffers no corruption.

The Word is made flesh, yet does not cease to dwell with the Father.

Angels and shepherds give glory,

And with them we cry aloud://

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth Peace.

v: The Lord said unto my Lord: Sit at my right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool.

Tone 3 Today the virgin gives birth to the maker of all;

Eden offers a cave;

A star discloses Christ the Sun to those in darkness;

Magi, enlightened by faith, worship with gifts.

Shepherds behold the wonder and angels sing praises, saying://

Glory to God in the highest.

v: From the womb before the morning star have I begotten You.

Tone 3 When the Lord Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judah,

Magi coming from the east worshipped God made man.

And eagerly opening their treasures,

They offered to him precious gifts:

Refined gold, as to the King of the ages,

And frankincense, as to the God of all;

Myrrh they offered to the Immortal,

As to one three days dead.

Come all nations, and let us worship him//

Who was born to save our souls.

*Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; Tone 4

Rejoice, Jerusalem,

And celebrate, all who love Sion!

Today the ancient bond of the condemnation of Adam is loosed.

Paradise is opened to us:

The serpent is laid low.

Of old he deceived the woman in paradise,

But now he sees a woman become mother of the Creator.

O the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God!

The sinful vessel that brought death upon all flesh

Has become the first fruits of salvation through the Theotokos for all the world.

For from her the all-perfect God is born a child,

And by his birth he sets the seal on her virginity.

Through his swaddling clothes he looses the bands of sin.

And through becoming a child he heals Eve's pangs in travail.

Therefore let all creation sing and dance for joy, //

For Christ has come to restore it and to save our souls!

*now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen. Tone 4

You have come to dwell in a cave, O Christ our God,

And the manger received you;

Shepherds and Magi worshipped you.

Then the preaching of the prophets was fulfilled,

And the angelic powers marvelled, crying aloud and saying: //

Glory to your condescension, only lover of mankind!

PRAYER OF SAINT SYMEON

Reader: Now set free your servant, Master, according to your word in peace, for my eyes have seen your Salvation, Whom you have prepared before the face of all peoples — Light for revelation to the Gentiles, and the Glory of your people Israel.

Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us. (x3)

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

All-holy Trinity, have mercy on us. Lord, cleanse our sins. Master, pardon our transgressions. Holy One, watch over and heal our infirmities, for your name's sake.

Lord, have mercy. (x3)

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

Priest: For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit now and ever and to the ages of ages.

Chanter: Amen.

TROPARION (three times without "Glory..." "now...")

Tone 4 Your Nativity, O Christ our God, has shone to the world the light of wisdom! For by it, those who worshipped the stars, were taught by a star to adore You, the Sun of Righteousness, and to know You, the Orient from on high, O Lord, glory to You!

Deacon: Wisdom!

Chanter: Father, bless!

Priest: Blessed is He-who-is, Christ our God, always, now and ever and to the ages of ages.

Chanter: Amen. Confirm, O God, the holy Orthodox faith and Orthodox Christians unto ages of ages!

Priest: All-holy Birthgiver of God save us!

Chanter: More honorable than the Cherubim and beyond compare more glorious than the Seraphim, without defilement you gave birth to God the Word, true Birthgiver of God we magnify you.

Priest: Glory to you, Christ God, our Hope, glory to you!

Chanter: Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen. Lord have mercy. Lord have mercy. Lord have mercy. Father, bless!

Priest: He who was born in a cave and was laid in a manger for our salvation, Christ our true God, risen from the dead, through the intercessions of his all-pure and all-blameless holy Mother; by the power of the precious and life-creating Cross; by the protections of the honorable bodiless powers of heaven; through the supplications of the honorable, glorious prophet, forerunner and baptist John, of the holy, glorious and all-laudable Apostles, of the holy, glorious and right-victorious martyrs, of our venerable and God-bearing Fathers, of the holy and righteous ancestors of God, Joachim and Anna, and of all the saints, have mercy on us and save us, as one who is good and loves mankind.

Choir: Amen.

Priest: Through the prayers of our holy fathers, Lord Jesus Christ God, have mercy on us.

Choir: Amen.
