HYMNS TO THE MOTHER OF GOD FROM THE MOLEBEN / PARAKLESIS

To the Theotokos, let us run now most fervently, as sinners and lowly ones, let us fall down in repentance, crying from the depths of our soul:
Lady, come and help us, have compassion upon us;
hasten now for we are lost in the host of our errors;
do not turn your servants away, for you alone are a hope to us.

O Theotokos, we shall never be silent. Of your mighty acts, all we the unworthy;
had you not stood to intercede for us who would have delivered us, from the numerous perils?
Who would have preserved us all until now with our freedom?
O Lady, we shall not depart from you; for you always save your servants, from all tribulation.

All those do you shelter, O Good One, those who in their faith flee unto you, with your strong hand, you protect; we who sin have no one else who intercedes for us before God, praying endlessly, in ills and all dangers, for us who are laden with our many sins and mistakes;
Mother of our God in the Highest, therefore, we fall down to you, humbly;
From all the misfortunes, keep your servants safe.

For those in great sorrow you are joy, and for the oppressed, a protection, and for the hungry, their food, comfort unto those estranged;
You are a staff to the blind, visitation of all those sick, and to those held by pain shelter and a comforting, and to the orphaned, an aid;
Mother of our God in the highest, you who are the Spotless One, hasten, save your servants from their sin, we ask of you.

Rejoice, Virgin most pure, honored scepter of Christ the King;
Rejoice, from you the mystical Vine sprouted;
Rejoice, gate of heaven and unburnt bush; Rejoice, light of the world;
Rejoice, joy of all; Rejoice, salvation of the faithful;
Rejoice, protectress and refuge of all Christians;
Rejoice, O Lady!

FROM FATHER'S DESK

The Dormition of the Mother of God is the last great feast of the church year which ends on August 31. The new church year which begins on September 1 has as its first great feast the birth of the Mother of God on September 8. The church year, then, begins and ends with her, begins with her birth and ends with her falling asleep in death and her resurrection from the dead and ascension to heaven. So then, our lives begin and end with hers, we are born with her and we die with her.

We call her "more honorable than the Cherubim and beyond compare more glorious than the Seraphim." These are not poetic exaggerations. We honor her above all the highest ranks of angels and all the saints. Why? Because she so considered herself as nothing before God that the Son of God was born in her heart and so took flesh from her womb to be born of her. Through her the God-Man lived among us and showed us Himself as the way to His Father through the Holy Spirit. Mary is the new Eve, indeed the Mother of Life because she gave birth to Him who is Life, the Son of God who took His human flesh from her. In her, then, we have a powerful advocate to intercede for us before her Son, for the prayer of a mother is powerful before the Master.

The first Scripture reading at the Vespers of her feast tells of Jacob's dream of a ladder extending from earth to heaven with the angels of God ascending and descending upon it. When he awoke Jacob said this place "is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven!" We call Mary, the Mother of God, these very titles "House of God" and "Gate of Heaven" as she is the ladder connecting earth and heaven, the ladder by which the Son of God descended to earth, took flesh from her and was born of her.

In the first hymn of the Vespers we sing, "O the marvelous wonder! The source of Life is laid in a grave, and the tomb becomes a ladder to heaven." Now her tomb is called "a ladder", a ladder leading from earth to heaven, because when St Thomas arrived on the third day after her burial, the apostles opened the stone at the entrance to her tomb and found that her "body had disappeared and that only the shroud remained, empty and keeping the shape of the body." So by this the apostles learned of the resurrection of the Mother of God and "the ascension of her body, united again with her soul, above the skies in the close company of her Son, to be our representative and advocate before God."

"Mary, 'daughter of Adam'…having become truly 'Mother of God' and 'Mother of Life' in giving birth to Him who is the Fullness of Life (cf Jn 14:6)…passed through death. But her death was no dishonour because death, overcome by Christ, became a 'lifegiving death' and the principle of a new existence. As one of the saints put it, God has put death to a different use. "And the tomb of Mother of God at Gethsemane, as well as the Holy Sepulchre of our Lord, are as a 'bridal chamber' where the wedding feast of incorruptibility is made radiant."

We see in her falling asleep in death, in her resurrection and ascension into heaven, that which awaits every human. Her son tells us that "those who have done right will rise to the resurrection of life (as did His Mother) but those who have done evil to the resurrection of judgment." Whether our resurrection will be glorious as hers was is up to us and how we live our life in Christ here and now.

At baptism we were give Christ, whole and entire, Him alive in us. The rest of our days we can spend conforming our life, our interior life, to Christ. And this will be revealed in the light of the divine presence for the light of heaven and the fire of hell are one and the same thing - the presence of God. To those ready to receive Him – light. To those who won't have Him – but have to have Him anyway because the Apostle Paul says "He will be all in all" – God will be fire. So whether we want God or not – we are going to be in His presence, and the question is "Are we ready for Him?"

The work of our life is to make our life, our inner life, fitting to the new world, the world to come, to prepare ourselves as vessels for the divine presence. Above all the holy people who have lived up to our very day, the Mother of God is one who has glimpsed this new reality – the presence and light and splendor of the world to come. She lived her life such that the Son of God took flesh from her and was born of her. And so she died in Him having lived her life in Him, her Son and God. Asking her intercession before her Son, like her let us conform our lives to His, make our life as His in every way through Him so that we live and die as our heavenly Mother did, such that we join her in the light of the glory of Christ's Face where he reigns with the Father and the Spirit forever.

TRANSFIGURATION OF OUR LORD is celebrated on August 6. On Mount Tabor Jesus was transfigured before Peter, James, and John. "'He was transfigured,' Saint John Damascene assures us, 'not by assuming what He was not, but in revealing to His disciples what He was, opening their blind eyes and making them see.' Christ opened the eyes of His disciples, and it was with sight transfigured by the power of the Holy Spirit that they saw the divine Light indissolubly united to His body. There were therefore transformed themselves and it was in prayer that they were able to see and understand the change that has taken place in our nature through its union with the Word (St. Gregory Palamas)…[The} feast is therefore that of the divinization of our human nature and the participation of our corruptible body in those eternal blessings that are beyond nature. Even before accomplishing our salvation through His Passion, the Saviour showed that the goal of His Incarnation was precisely to lead the whole of mankind to the contemplation of His divine glory." The Synaxarion by Hieromonk Makarios of Simonos Petra, Volume 6, pg 392, 394

DORMITION PILGRIMAGE at Holy Dormition Monastery, Rives Junction, will be open to a smaller number of pilgrims, continuing to observe the previous recommendations of the CD regarding wearing masks and social distancing, for the protection of the monastics and the prevention of the spread of the Delta variant of the COVID-19 virus. Those who desire to take part in the services on August 15, please make a reservation with Mrs. Cristina Irmie 734-968-5565 or email cristina_irmie@hotmail.com

PARISH COUNCIL met on July 13th in person in the fellowship hall. The parish finances continue to remain stable. God bless everyone for their stewardship during this challenging time. The proceeds from the rummage sale has been earmarked for maintenance. Dennis Jernigan is planning to get estimates to put covers on the gutters because of the debris that blocks them several times a year. This will eliminate the need for anyone to go on the roof to do this. $500 was donated from the charity fund for Hieromonk Patrick (Carpenter), a priest of the OCA's Archdiocese of Pittsburgh, who had both legs amputated between fall 2020 and spring 2021. The painting of the interior of the church and the narthex is complete. The small bell needs work as it is no longer operating. The rental policy for the pavilion will make clear that those who rent it are responsible for the clean-up before and after the rental, as is common with rentals at parks. Parish council meetings are open to for parishioners to attend.

SHRINE FEAST OUTDOOR LITURGY & PARISH PICNIC Sunday, August 22nd. The menu for lunch is lamb/chicken, rice, coleslaw, vegetable, bread & dessert. Tickets, which are available now are $15 adult & $8 children. Please purchase them from Sharon Jernigan before the 22nd to ensure there is enough food for everyone. Volunteers are needed Saturday after Vespers to set up the pavilion for the Liturgy! Volunteers are needed to break-down the pavilion after Liturgy on Sunday!

15 YEAR MEMORIAL August 23 will mark fifteen years since the repose of Archpriest Raphael Biernacki, rector from 1975 to 1995 and from 2004 until his repose in 2006. At the outdoor Liturgy on August 22 a Trisagion will be served for Fr. Raphael's repose.

THE PARISH COUNCIL will meet on August 10th @ 6:30 pm. Please call or email the parish office if you are unable to attend this meeting.

105th ANNIVERSARY This year is 105 years since the founding of our parish. God-willing, we will celebrate with a visit from Archbishop Alexander in the fall to serve the Divine Liturgy followed by a dinner. Read future bulletins and newsletters for details.

MEMORY ETERNAL – CHRIST IS RISEN! DINA SALHAB-TASEVSKA fell asleep in the Lord on Monday, July 19. Christ God, grant her rest among the saints. She is survived by her parents, Kosta and Nancy Tasevsky; sister, Annie Tasevska; daughter and son, Jenna and Ryan Salhab; and many aunts, uncles and cousins. Dina was buried from church on Saturday, July 24 at Evergreen Cemetery by Swartz Funeral Home. Christ God, risen from the dead, grant His handmaiden Dina rest in the light of His Face. God sustain her family by His grace. Please remember Dina in your prayers and her family. Bog da prosti! Christos voskrese! Christ is risen!

DORMITION FAST begins on August 1 and continues to August 14. As is the custom at our parish, the Moleben to the Mother of God will be served in her shrine on Sundays after Liturgy beginning on August 1 and continuing to August 15. Take the time to come before her icon at the shrine and ask her intercession for your and your family's needs. At the conclusion of the service you will be anointed with the myrrh from the myrrh-streaming Hawaiian icon of our Lady of Iveron.

CLASSIC CAR SHOW in our church parking lot on Sunday, August, 15th. Hotdogs, hamburgers & pop will be provided.

VACATION CHURCH SCHOOL will be held August 17, 18 & 19 and will be hosted by St. Mary Magdalene this year. We need people to volunteer – whether you have children participating or not. Please let Popadia Lisa know if you would like to volunteer.

FOOD/WATER GIVEAWAY Catholic Charities is giving food & water to the families in the parishes that help them. All are welcome! August 22nd from 11 am-1 pm in the parking lot of the Center for Hope at 812 Root St.

FLOWERS FOR THE SHRINE FEAST If you would like to donate toward the cost of the flower blanket for the celebration of the Theotokos on August 22nd, please contact the office or put your donation in the offering plate. The cost is $125.

18th ANNUAL ELIAS D. CHINONIS GOLF CLASSIC August 23rd at Pine Knob Golf Course. This golf outing is being coordinated by Assumption & you can direct any questions to John Kaloydis at 810-922-2047 or jekaloydis@comcast.net. Look at the flyer for details.

LIVESTREAMING EQUIPMENT was generously donated by Arlene Timma in memory of Fr. Andrew Nowak, Linda Branoff and the Vuckovich family.

THE PARISH COUNCIL will meet on August 10th @ 6:30 pm. Please call or email the parish office if you are unable to attend this meeting.
