JULY 2026

FROM THE LIFE OF SAINT JOHN THE MERCIFUL (ca. 552-620)

A certain young man, driven by licentious impulses, was once going about the city of Alexandria. After seducing a virgin who had decided to embrace the monastic life, and making her the object of his wanton enjoyment, he eloped with her shortly thereafter to Constantinople. On learning of this incident, the Divine John the Merciful became sorely distressed, and—as the proverb has it—he left no stone unturned in his zealous concern to raise them up as soon as possible from their fall.

After some time had passed, as Saint John was recounting a soul-profiting story to one of his clergy, he happened to cite the case of that young man who had been sowing his wild oats. When some of those present heard this, they condemned and denounced the young man as if with a single tongue, asserting that this sinful relationship had brought about the perdition not only of those two souls, but also of many others, for whom it had become a bad example.

Chiding them for their readiness to condemn, the Blessed John said: "Do not talk this way, my blessed children; do not be so quick to arouse your tongue to accuse your neighbor, for in so doing you are liable to fall into two evils: the first evil is to transgress the commandment of Him Who bade us not condemn anyone prematurely and Who also said, 'With what judgment you judge, you shall be judged' (St. Matthew 7:2); and the second evil is that, without knowing this young man's current situation, you very readily appoint yourselves his judges, when it is altogether uncertain whether he and the girl are persisting in their sin, or whether they have corrected themselves. For this reason, I exhort you to leave judgment of your neighbor to God, Who knows all things; for it sometimes happens that we know about the sin of one who has committed fornication or fallen into some other transgression, since it was done openly, but are unaware of the repentance which he has performed in secret, such that he whom we condemn as a fornicator has been justified by God and is now living prudently."

FROM FATHER'S DESK

My dear ones,

Every July we remember the holy bishops who gathered at the first six ecumenical councils. These councils were called not because the Church ran out of things to speak about but because there were persons, most often clergy, who began teaching incorrect and false doctrines about our Lord, the Holy Spirit, our Lord's Mother, etc. Heresies were countered at these councils by the truth of the teachings of the Apostles, by the words of Sacred Scripture, by the teaching of the Holy Church from age to age. The light of the Holy Spirit illumined these fathers as they taught the truths of the faith. In these councils the brightness of the Truth scattered the darkness of error. And the Truth is none other than the Word of God, our Lord God and Savior Jesus Christ.

We have received the true Light who is Christ, we have received the Holy Spirit, we have found the true faith and we worship the undivided Trinity who has saved us. And all of this great grace is not merely for our own use, so to speak. The faith we have received, the receiving of the Holy Spirit, is not something for us to bury or hide solely for ourselves. We may find consolation in times of sorrow from our faith in Christ; we may find joy in the graces we receive from the Father through the Son and in the Holy Spirit. But our faith is bigger than our individual person.

Our faith is meant to be lived in the whole of our lives, in every time and place. We are to share our faith by our example. Our Lord Jesus said, "You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hid. Nor do men light a lamp and put it under a bushel basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house." The light of our faith is to shine forth by our thoughts, words, and deeds. We are not to keep our faith hidden from sight. Nor are we to show off our faith for vainglory or pride. Christ Jesus gives us the reason for sharing the light of faith, not so that we may be honored, "but that men may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven."

Hiding our lamp under a bushel basket is akin to the parable of the servant who received the one talent of silver and immediately went and buried it in the ground. And when his master returned he said, "here's your one talent." That servant was chastised for hiding away what had been given to him.

We have received the light of faith, the spiritual sight of knowing who is the Savior of the world. Through baptism and chrismation we became temples of the Holy Spirit who will remain with us if we remain with Him. We are blessed to receive forgiveness of sins when we repent and confess our sins. We have the grace to receive our Lord Jesus Christ, in Holy Communion, entering into communion with the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. All of these great blessings are ours as followers of Christ. May we share what we have received. May we live lives of good works, founded on our faith. May we teach by our deeds and words, showing forgiveness, mercy, humility and love.

This makes me think of the Archbishop at the seminary where I went. Often throughout the year when he would visit he would remind us seminarians that a Christian life lived well, in following Christ, speaks more volumes than any homily or sermon. Because a life lived in Christ shines with the light of Christ who is within us and it calls out to other people. People who may never have picked up a Bible in their lives. He told us that our lives may be the only Bible some people read. His words apply not only to seminarians and priests, they apply to all of us. When people look at how we live, what we say, what we do, will they see the light of Christ reflected in us? Will they see the light that leads them to the fullness of all truth and glory in the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit? Let us allow our light, the light who is Christ in us, so shine before all people that they may see our good works and give glory to our Father who is in heaven.

With love in Christ, Fr Matthew

PARISH COUNCIL UPDATE - June 9, 2026. Present: Christopher Taylor, Eileen Branoff, Stephanie Price, Staci Shank, Dennis Jernigan, Lena Bakousidis, Bill Economou. Absent: Connie Maxim, Bruce Watson. The meeting opened with prayer at 6:32 pm. Minutes accepted as presented. Financial report Tithes and offerings have kept us in the positive. The summer months, however, are when tithes and offerings tend to drop below our monthly expenses so please keep up with your stewardship offerings during these months especially. Endowment fund $553,156.39 at the end of May 2026. The parish council president informed the parish council that the endowment committee voted that if necessary the parish council may use the funds in the money market fund which are dividends/interest (not principal). Rector's report Four catechumens were made on June 7, 2026 and more will be made by the end of the month. Alexander Gonser has been accepted at both Saint Tikhon's and Saint Vladimir's Seminaries. He will be attending Saint Vladimir's Seminary in the fall, enrolling in their 3 year Master's of Divinity program leading to diaconal and priestly ordination. Staci Shank will use her Polaroid to take photos of our new catechumens, inquirers to post on the bulletin board so that we all can become familiar with them and our newer parishioners. Church school on hiatus for the summer. One parishioner has volunteered to be a teacher. We can use another teacher and also teacher's aides. Catechesis can move back to the library because with the Wednesday online class has reduced the number attending on Sundays. Community outreach Movie night on Friday, July 24. Fundraising flier with picnic, date, Skimos Band, etc. Stephanie Price will work on the flier. $300 to donate a whole lamb. Or you can donate towards a whole lamb to help offset that cost. Father Matthew suggested that the Liturgy be served in church for the shrine feast which everyone agreed was a good idea because the food will be served from the hall kitchen. The Skimos Band will play from 1 to 5 pm in the pavilion. Čevapi will be sold in the pavilion during the band's play time and lamb will be sold until it runs out. The shrine will be open during the picnic and for the duration of the band. Rebecca Lazar is interested in have a dance class to teach how to dance the Macedonian dances. There will be a bounce house and cornhole boards. Charity Ministries The North End Soup kitchen will be July 2th from 9 to 12:30 pm. Church Building & Grounds repair work was done to the sink in the women's room. The lawnmower and weed trimmer are bought and in use. They need to be added onto insurance coverage. Bill Economou will get safety glasses and ear protection. The cemetery was cleaned up and the lawn was cut. The parking lot sealing of the cracks needs some touching up, Dennis Jernigan will check with the company. A new blind was purchased to replace the broken blind on the west-facing window in the fellowship hall. Three of the air conditioning units in the church need to be checked as they are not cooling. Old Business Anniversary ideas - looking into photo directory. Staci Shank updated on the garden to note that monetary donations have been made for plants, items to use. Christopher Taylor and Sadie Hager have helped out with the garden. New Business Garlic that Staci planted in October are now coming up and she has harvested some garlic scapes and bulbs should be coming up soon. A new playground will be purchased and installed in future with unrestricted Memorial Funds - comparable in size and style to our present playscape which is nearly twenty years old. Hope to have it installed by the picnic on August 16. Next meeting is Tuesday, July 7 at 6:30 pm (a change from July 14). Adjournment with prayer at 8:12 pm.

ORTHODOX CHRISTIAN PRISON MINISTRY Sunday, July 26 is Prison Ministry Awarenenss Sunday in all Orthodox parishes of North America. Deacon Luke is involved in this ministry from our parish.

The Bishops of the Assembly of Canonical Orthodox Bishops have blessed the Sunday after the feast of St. Silas (the patron of prison ministry) to be Prison Ministry Awareness Sunday in all US Orthodox parishes.

America's tragically high incarceration rate (2.3 million) means that—chances are—more than one parishioner has been touched by a person serving time in prison. OCPM introduces prisoners to the fullness of the Orthodox faith. And we help Orthodox Christians who have been convicted of crimes to return to the Orthodox faith and find healing and reconciliation.

But we can't do it without the support of our parishes.

Please help us fulfill the commandment of our Lord to visit Him in prison (Matthew 25:36) by participating in this vital day of awareness.

In Christ,
Nicholas Petrogeorge, Executive Director

UPCOMING RETIREMENT OF ARCHBISHOP ALEXANDER FROM THE DIOCESE OF THE SOUTH

As the Holy Synod of Bishops announced on April 29, 2026, our Archbishop and Father Alexander will retire from the Diocese of the South on July 23, 2026 at the conclusion of the Diocesan Assembly. A locum tenens for the Diocese of the South will be appointed at that time. On Friday, July 24 a special nominating session will be held for the Diocese of the South to nominate a candidate for bishop of the diocese. Canonical election of a bishop is done by the Holy Synod of Bishops at their fall sitting. At that time, His Eminence will be relieved of his duties as diocesan bishop of the South. He will, however, continue to serve as the ruling bishop of the Bulgarian Diocese. https://www.oca.org/news/headline-news/the-holy-synod-of-bishops-announces-the-upcoming-retirement-of-his-eminence-archbishop-alexander-from-the-diocese-of-the-south
