MARCH 2021

THE LENTEN PRAYER OF SAINT EPHREM

O Lord and Master of my life, take from me the spirit of sloth, despair, lust of power, and idle talk. (prostration)

But give rather the spirit of chastity, humility, patience, and love to Thy servant. (prostration)

Yea, O Lord and King, grant me to see my own transgressions, and not to judge my brother, for blessed art Thou, unto ages of ages. Amen. (prostration)

PRAYER BEHIND THE AMVON AT THE PRESANCTIFIED LITURGY

Master ruler-of-all, who in wisdom have fashioned all creation, who through your unutterable forecare and great goodness have led us to these most-holy days for cleansing of souls and bodies, for control of passions, and for hope of resurrection, who by means of forty days put into the hands of your servant Moses the divinely inscribed letters, grant us also, O Good One, to fight the good fight, to complete the course of the fast, to keep the faith undivided, to crush the heads of the invisible dragons, to be revealed victors over sin, and without condemnation to attain to and to worship also the holy resurrection, for blessed and glorified is your all-honorable and majestic name, of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages.

FROM FATHER'S DESK

On Sunday, March 7 we say goodbye to eating meat until Pascha. On Sunday, March 14, when we say goodbye to almost everything else that is worth eating, the Church gives to us the remembrance of an event: the expulsion of Adam and Eve from Paradise. We know the story. How God told Adam and Eve they may eat of everything in Paradise except from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, because they weren't ready for it yet. And how, tempted by the serpent, Eve took and ate, and Adam took from her and ate. And then they discovered that they were naked of glory and were ashamed and hid themselves. God did not wait for them to come to Him, He went to them, calling out for them. And Adam replied by placing the blame on Eve. It's as if Adam said, "This is all your fault, God. This all happened because of the woman You gave me." No humility here. And for this lack of humility, they were cast out from Paradise. (Elder Aimilianos, St. Dorotheos of Gaza) This is what we remember on Chreesefare Sunday.

At the vespers, we will hear Adam's lament outside the gates of Paradise. There Adam sat and wept bitterly saying "Woe to me! What will become of me, a worthless man? I disobeyed one command of my Master and lost every good thing! O holy Paradise, planted for me by God, and closed by the weakness of Eve, grant that I may once again gaze on the flowers of your gardens!"

Adam is each one of us. There is no beginning to the spiritual life until we become like Adam here: knowing that we are exiles from Paradise by our sins. Understanding the hole in our heart that cannot be filled by anyone or anything of this earth – only by God. Knowing that we are dust, and as Father Schmemann wrote, the food we eat we refrigerate because it is dead. We have no lasting home here. (Hebrews 13:14). Paradise is our home and we by our sins are cast out of it. And so we weep. This is Adam's lament – our lament.

Yet, we discover, that we are not left alone outside the gates of Paradise. God did not and never will abandon us. The hymn continues: "The Savior said to Adam: 'I do not wish the death of my creation! I desire that all should be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth, for the one who comes to me I shall never cast out!'" "Because man will not bow down to God, God, in His infinite humility, bows down to man." (Elder Aimilianos). Christ Himself bows down to the little god He created, to Adam, and empties Himself to bring Adam, us, back to Paradise. "All day long, Christ, the Great High Priest, stands with His hands outstretched on the cross on which (we) the little gods have nailed Him. And from that lofty vantage point, He supplicates His heavenly Father on our behalf. Though we crucify Him every day, God prays for us! That, my beloved, is humility!" (Elder Aimilianos)

It is this divine humility which we seek to be every day – a school of humility that is Great Lent especially. This is the likeness to God that leads to forgiveness of sins – us forgiving others and God forgiving us. It is a paradox that we, like Adam, will blame others for their sins but make excuses for our own sins. And so we are cast out. Life-giving humility is found in making excuses for others' sins and never making excuses for our own. Knowing our own sins, we see to the plank in our own eye and never mind about the speck in our sister's or brother's eye. And so we may enter a place loftier than Paradise, the heavenly kingdom which Christ now bends down to touch the earth. Whereas Adam's food was the fruit of the garden, we eat of the "bread which came down from heaven" (John 6:32-35), hearing Christ's words: Take, eat, drink as He calls us to the communion of paradise which may we all attain in and through Christ Jesus our Lord.

MEMORY ETERNAL – CHRIST IS RISEN! Memory eternal to Matushka Olga Govrusik who fell asleep in the Lord on January 13 at the age of 96. She is the daughter of the late Archpriest John & Matushka Maria Handziuk. Father John served our parish from 1928 to 1942. Matushka Govrusik's parents and her sister Stephanida and brother Nicholas are buried in our parish cemetery. You may read her obituary here. Memory eternal! Bog da prosti! Christ is risen!

YOUNG ADULTS Parish council is looking to help our youth, in college and those beginning their careers, remain engaged in their life in Christ, especially during the complexities of the pandemic and the stresses of college life. To do this we need your help. Specifically, we need the contact information (e-mail) for our young adults so that we can reach out to them. You can call the parish office 810-744-0070 or have your child, grandchild, or godchild send an email to stnicholasburtonmi@gmail.com

PARISH COUNCIL UPDATE Parish council met on Tuesday, February 9 at 6:30 pm with attendees in person and virtually. The parish finances are stable with $1,583.82 to the good for January. A draft list of our college students and young adults has been made. Many parishioners have expressed their willingness to be part of telephone outreach within the parish. The relay for the air handler needs to be replaced as it is the original from when the church was built. This is important for circulating heat. The replacement will cost between $600 to $800. Joe Tome has donated the cost for our back-up air compressor. Council expressed thanks for his doing this. We will not contract out lawn treatments. Last year we did not. Dennis Jernigan treated for dandelions and the lawn was fine. The parish council re-appointed Mike Stikovich and Protodeacon Luke Gonser as members of the endowment committee (five year term). Parish council also named to the nominating committee Paul Brayan, Ruth Conrad, Connie Maxim, Christine Panoff and Joe Tome. Compensation (salaries) were reviewed. Burton Fire Department is not doing training for Automatic External Defibrillators (AED) at this time. If anyone is interested in learning how to operate the AED, please contact the office for details on a virtual class through the American Red Cross. The next parish council meeting is Tuesday, March 9 at 6:30 pm with in-person attendance and the virtual option.

PARISH COUNCIL will meet on March 9th @ 6:30 pm. Please call or email the parish office if you are unable to attend this meeting. Those who wish to attend virtually will be able to do so.

St. John Chrysostom

On Fasting

Fasting is the change of every part of our life, because the sacrifice of the fast is not the abstinence but the distancing from sins. Therefore, whoever limits the fast to the deprivation of food, he is the one who, in reality, abhors and ridicules the fast. Are you fasting? Show me your fast with your works. Which works? If you see someone who is poor, show him mercy. If you see an enemy, reconcile with him. If you see a friend who is becoming successful, do not be jealous of him! If you see a beautiful person on the street, pass that one by.

In other words, not only should the mouth fast, but the eyes and the legs and the arms and all the other parts of the body should fast as well. Let the hands fast, remaining clean from stealing and greediness. Let the legs fast, avoiding roads which lead to sinful sights. Let the eyes fast by not fixing themselves on beautiful faces and by not observing the beauty of others. You are not eating meat, are you? You should not eat debauchery with your eyes as well. Let your hearing also fast. The fast of hearing is not to accept bad talk against others and sly defamations.

Let the mouth fast from disgraceful and abusive words, because, what gain is there when, on the one hand we avoid eating chicken and fish and, on the other, we chew-up and consume our brothers? He who condemns and blasphemes is as if he has eaten brotherly meat, as if he has bitten into the flesh of his fellow man…

To the brothers, though, who cannot fast because of bodily illness, encourage them not to abandon this spiritual word, teaching them and passing on to them all the things we say here, showing them that he who eats and drinks with moderation is not unworthy to hear these things but he who is indifferent and slack….If we eat with moderation we should never be ashamed, because the Creator gave us such a body which cannot be supported in any other way except by receiving food. Let us only stop excessive food….

"I Waited Patiently for the Lord" (Psalm 40:1)
An Orthodox Approach to Sickness & Suffering

Presented by

Archimandrite Maximos Constas

Fr Maximos is interim dean of Holy Cross, Greek Orthodox School of Theology, where he is also Professor of Patristics and Orthodox Spirituality. A summa cum laude graduate of both Hellenic College (1984) and Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology (1987), Fr Maximos completed his PhD in Patristics and Historical Theology at the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. (1994). He has taught Patristics and Systematic Theology at Christ the Savior Seminary (1991-1992), and Early Christian and Byzantine Studies at Hellenic College and Holy Cross (1993-1998). He was subsequently invited to join the faculty of Harvard Divinity School, where for many years he served as Associate Professor of Theology (1998-2003). Responding to a life-long call to enter monastic life, Fr Maximos resigned from his position at Harvard and was tonsured a great-schema monk at the Holy Monastery of Simonopetra, Mt Athos, where he lived from 2003-2011. In 2015, Fr Maximos was ordained as a priest to serve in the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America.
