OCTOBER 2022

SAINT ISAAC THE SYRIAN, Bishop of Nineveh

As my soul bows to the ground I offer to you with all my bones and with all my heart the worship that befits you. O glorious God, who dwell in ineffable silence, you have built for my renewal a tabernacle of love on earth where it is your good pleasure to rest, a temple made of flesh and fashioned with the most holy oil of the sanctuary. Then you filled it with your holy presence so that all worship might be fulfilled in it, indicating the worship of the eternal persons of your Trinity, and revealing to the worlds which you had created in your grace an ineffable mystery, a power which cannot be felt or grasped by any part of your creation that has come into being. In wonder at it, angelic beings are submerged in silence, awed at the dark cloud of this eternal mystery and at the flood of glory which issues from within this source of wonder, for it receives worship in the sphere of silence from every intelligence that has been sanctified and made worthy of you.

The pan-Orthodox Churches of Genesee County remains active as at its inception in the 1950s composed of Saint Nicholas Church, Saint Mary Magdalene Church, Saint George Antiochian Church, and Assumption Greek Orthodox Church: celebrating Presanctified Liturgies, the feast of Annunciation, Lazarus Saturday, a Liturgy at each of the four parishes during Bright Week and pan-Orthodox Liturgies for the great feasts (excepting Christmas, Theophany, and Pascha). The 10th annual Pan-Orthodox Dormition Monastery fundraiser was held virtually on January 20 with Vespers live from Dormition of the Mother of God Monastery in Rives Junction, Michigan and guest speaker Archbishop Nathanael of the Romanian Episcopate (OCA). The annual softball game was held at Saint Pius X Roman Catholic Church's ballfield on July 10. The Pan-Orthodox vacation church school was hosted by St. Mary Magdalene Church, Fenton, this year. At the parish we have a choir, readers for the epistle and hours, altar servers, a weekday chanter. Communion brought to the shut-ins on a weekly basis where permitted during the restrictions imposed as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.

At this Liturgy two catechumens were received by chrismation. The new icon shrine of our Lady "Eleousa" in the courtyard was blessed. PARISH COUNCIL UPDATE: Please continue your financial pledges to the parish. Church school classes began September 11 and will conclude May 14. Lesson hyperlinks will be sent via e-mail, posted in the bulletin, newsletter, YouTube, and Facebook links. Parish council discussed resuming passing the envelope plate for tithes/offerings – those holding the cloth for Communion to pass the tray after Communion. Fundraising - Rummage sale brought in $1,457.39. There may be a little more coming in and there are some expenses (advertising). The final proceeds for the August 21 picnic were $1,396.03, which went to the Maintenance Fund. There will be a luncheon on October 16 after Divine Liturgy – free will offering. Cookie walk is Saturday, December 10. Charity Ministry - North End Soup Kitchen – Thursday, October 6 from 9 am to 12:30 pm. Building and Maintenance – over thirty years since the shingle roof on the church was replaced and shingles are lost with each storm. Two bids were sought for replacing the church roof, unanimous vote to have Hammerberg Roofing re-shingle the church roof. Garage is ready for painting of the boards that were replaced. Hall rental policy – add "no glitter." Rummage sale funds will be used for maintenance (buying paint for the garage). Old business - Parish council is looking for a sexton for the cemetery (to mark off graves before burials take place, keep track of the burials, if anyone will be moved to another cemetery). Need a new tax person to do the church's taxes. New business – the large coffee maker is not percolating. Dennis Jernigan is looking in to if it can be repaired. If it cannot be repaired, a new one will need to be bought. Next meeting is Tuesday, October 11 at 6:30 pm. Elections on Sunday, November 6 for parish council (3 to be elected), auditors (2 to be elected), and delegate to the 2023 Diocesan Conference (1 delegate - top vote-getter is delegate, the next in votes will be the alternate if the delegate cannot attend). Sloppy joe luncheon.

THE MACEDONIAN OPEN GOLF committee would like to again thank all our golfers, sponsors, volunteers and gift donors who contributed to making this year's event successful. We could not have done the golf outing without all your help. Despite the expected and other unexpected increases in most of our expenses, it turned out to be very profitable for us again. This year's profit was $21,557.61. As we have in the past, we are requesting that all the profits be put into the St. Nicholas Capital Improvement Fund to keep our beautiful church in prime condition for many years to come. Most of last year's profits went to pay for all of the new air conditioners and systems to run them, which replaced the church's old, outdated ones. Let us look forward to a great outing again next year and may God Bless all of you.

ORTHODOX WOMEN in the Healing Ministries 29th Annual Retreat is September 30 & October 1, 2022. Fr. Silviu Bunta will be the guest speaker. He grew up and lived in Romania before he and his family moved to the United States. He studied early Judaism and ancient Christianity at Marquette University with Deirdre Dempsey, Archbishop Alexander (Golitzin), Sharon Pace, and Michel Barnes among others. His topic will be "Scripture is our life: thoughts on the Orthodox interpretation of Scripture"

Orthodox Women in the Healing Ministries was founded in 1992 with the mission of providing support to Orthodox Christian women who work in the medical and healing professions. This includes doctors, nurses, therapists, social workers and the like. In addition, from the inception of OWHM the founders defined all women as persons who "minister to others," including priest's wives, teachers, students, mothers and the like, and believe they would benefit from our retreat.

Our primary means of providing support to those who minister to others, is by sponsoring an annual three day retreat, which includes time for prayer, rest and reflection, opportunities for networking, and lectures given by outstanding speakers. We are grateful to have Mother Gabriella, Abbess of Holy Dormition Monastery as our spiritual director. You can register at: https://owhm.org/ Paper registration forms and information on hotels in the area can be found on the OWHM web page as well. For more details see the attached flier.

UKRAINIAN REFUGEES Anyone who wishes to support International Orthodox Christian Charity's (IOCC) humanitarian response to the Ukraine crisis is asked to pray for all those affected and the people serving them, to share what IOCC is doing in order to spread the word, and to give as they are able financially. Please visit iocc.org/ukraine22 or call 877.803.4622 to make a donation.
