HYMNS FROM THE VESPERS FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE MOTHER OF GOD

O pure Theotokos, fount of wisdom, and great help to those in distress, you are a speedy aid, protectress, and support of the world. We the faithful sing in praise of her who is a sea of compassion, ineffably praising her radiant omophorion: "Rejoice, O Maiden, full of grace, the Lord is with you, granting the world great mercy through you!"

The wondrous Isaiah prophesied: "In the latter days," said he, "it will come to pass that the mountain of the Lord shall be revealed, and the house of the Lord shall be upon the summit of the mountain." And of this, O sovereign Lady, we have seen in you the true fulfillment. For the mountains and hills are adorned with churches that bear the many names of your festivals. Therefore, joyfully we sing to you: "Rejoice, O highly favored Maiden, the Lord is with you, granting the world great mercy through you!"

Oh, how marvelous an adornment are you to all the faithful! You are the true fulfillment of the prophecies, the glory of the Apostles and the beauty of the Martyrs, the boast of virginity and the marvelous protection of the whole world. O sovereign Lady, protect with the omophorion of your tender mercy all the people who cry out to you: "Rejoice, O Virgin, full of grace, the Lord is with you, granting the world great mercy through you!"

You are like the divinely planted Paradise, O Theotokos, the place where the Tree of Life was watered by the Holy Spirit. We acknowledge that you gave birth to the Creator of all Who feeds the faithful with the Bread of Life. Together with the Forerunner, entreat Him on our behalf; and by your precious omophorion protect your people from all attacks!

Heaven and earth are sanctified; the Church is radiant, and all the people celebrate, for behold, the Mother of God enters invisibly with the armies of the Angels, the Forerunner, and the Theologian, the Prophets, and the Apostles! She prays to Christ for Christians and entreats Him to have mercy on this land and its people, who glorify the feast of her Protection.

Today the Powers of Heaven rejoice with us, and the souls of the just are spiritually assembled to behold the Queen and Mother glorified by the faithful. They witness the vision of the Mother of God: her arms outstretched upon the clouds in prayer, entreating peace for the world, strength for Orthodox Christians, and salvation for our souls.

FROM FATHER'S DESK

Beloved,

The text below is an excerpt from a talk by the late Elder Aimilianos of Simonos Petras Monastery on Mount Athos. It is Elder Aimilianos who tonsured our bishop, Archbishop Alexander, as a monk and it is this monastery to which our bishop returns, year after year. Fr. Aimilianos here opens to us a balanced way of life, not judging anyone but leaving all to God. This is our way of life because we are not our own, we have been bought at a price and so each one of us belongs not to ourselves but to God alone. Because we are God's and He alone is judge, there is no room for us to judge anyone else, whether ourselves or another person. May we each find some food for our souls in his words.

With love in Christ,

Fr Matthew

Stop judgment of others and of self! '"Do not measure yourself in any deed' (St. Isaiah the Solitary). Do not judge yourself for what you have done--good, bad, virtue, sin--or compare it with others. How often we are dealing with this thing! Let us forget what is behind us and show no interest in what we have done. For by analyzing, we discover that we have done something important or something bad, something great and good and more accomplished than someone else or something smaller. Whether we judge the thing in itself, or in connection to our neighbor, we will sail into one of the traps: either into pride, if it is something good and greater, or into despair, misery, into the disintegration of our self, if it is not good. This is so because, as long as we believe that we are mature, that we have power within us, we bear the inaptitude of Adam and Eve, the frail ego that our ancestors bequeathed us. Therefore, in order to remain untroubled by thoughts, never stay to analyze what you have done. This is valid for all that happens with us. But how then will I confess if I don't judge? In confession I don't make an analysis of my deeds, but the revealing of my sins. This is a different thing, since I do not evaluate my deeds, but I simply relate them. I don't stay to think what I have done that morning, what I have done and what I have not done, since this thing creates in my soul a suffocating atmosphere. If we convince ourselves that we have done something good, you do understand into how much egotism we can fall. The word "do not measure yourself in any deed" is the true wisdom. Most, when they fell, they also fell for this reason. Or we use it to justify our passions. For example: I sinned once and afterwards I tell myself "what good is repentance"? What misery! How much is our self torn to shreds this way!"

Elder Aimilianos, Logos Peri Nipseos

PARISH COUNCIL MEETING is October 13th at 6:30 pm.

SEPTEMBER PARISH COUNCIL UPDATE Meeting began with prayer. Financial statements arrived Friday, September 4 and with the Labor Day holiday reports were not prepared for the meeting, the secretary will e-mail them to parish council by the end of the week. We do have a $15,000 deficit - first time we've had to transfer money from savings this year. This is not unusual in the summer months. God-willing and everyone keeps up with their tithes, we will finish the year in the black. Endowment committee: no report. Rector's report: Father Matthew presented his printed report. Nominating committee will meet on Sunday, September 20 at 12 pm. Church school: planning meeting on September 13, classes begin September 20. Community outreach: Bonfire on Friday, September 25 at 7 pm. Trunk or Treat on Saturday, October 24. Baby shower for Sadie Hager on Nov 1 or 8 after coffee social. Fundraising: Possible cevapi luncheon on October 25. Cookie Walk on December 12. Charity ministries: North End Soup Kitchen is Thursday, October 1 from 9 am to 12:30 pm. Building and grounds: speaker system in church needs to be looked at. Fencing was put around the outdoor AC units to protect them from being stepped on. Bells: I.T. Verdin gave a quote of $48,000 to $50,000 to bring our bell system electronically up to date, cleaning the bells, etc. and much of the responsibility is ours (rent crane, etc.). There are few companies that do this type of church bell work in the United States. Bill Economou will contact Clarion in New York to get another estimate. Solenoid for the small bell needs replaced - we have the part, it needs to be put in on the small bell. The lights in the horseshoe drive have not yet been gotten to, a lift needs to be rented to do that. Sealing of parking lot looks to be complete. Old business: Anniversary ideas - Lena Bakousidis found out it is $30 per plate from Taboon, $35 per plate from Italia Gardens. Nick, caterer from St George Church, is catering Dennis Jernigan's mercy meal so he will be asked for a quote also. Paul Brayan gave a presentation on church history from the 100th anniversary church book. Liability insurance - attorney stated to Fr Matthew that because we have the paper signing over the lawnmower to the church, there is no liability that can be pursued on the original lien-holder because the church has purchased the lawnmower. The attorney made no charge for this legal advice. Christopher Taylor has electronic sign-in for up-to-date endowment fund values. New business: pledge cards will be sent out shortly; Cintas quote - changing mats/rugs, supply paper products and cleaning products, OMNIA - cooperative purchasing program, free membership, gets discounts on purchases from participating vendors - parish council will review both of these; Home Depot credit card - need a new one in the church name. Connie Maxim will contact the Vue newspapers to add our Trunk or Treat to their calendar. Meeting adjourned with prayer. Next meeting is Tuesday, October 13 at 6:30 pm.

WISDOM OF THE SAINTS St Porphyrios of Kavsokalyvia in *Wounded by Love

"In my life, prayer occupies the first place. I do not fear hell and I don't think of Paradise. I ask only for God to have mercy on the whole world and on me." p 132

"We are one even with those who are not close to the Church. They are distant on account of ignorance. We must pray that God will enlighten them and change them so that they too may come to Christ. We see things in a human light, we move on a different plane and imagine that we love Christ. But Christ, who sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous, (Matthew 5:45) tells us: Love your enemies. (Matthew 5:44) We need to pray that we may all be united, united in God. Then, if we live out this prayer, we will achieve corresponding results; we will all be united in love." p 89

"When someone injures us in whatever way, whether with slanders or with insults, we should think of him as our brother who has been taken hold of by the enemy. He has fallen victim to the enemy. Accordingly we need to have compassion for him and entreat God to have mercy both on us and on him, and God will help both. If, however, we are filled with anger against him, then the enemy will jump from him to us and make a mockery of us both. A person who condemns others does not love Christ. Our egotism is at fault. This is where condemnation of others stems from." p 182

"...among the Fathers of the Church, who were ascetics and teachers of spiritual sobriety, there are many who speak of the fear of death and hell. Fear of Hell, Fear of Punishment Trying to avoid sin, one indulges in such thoughts, the consequence of which is the fear of death, hell and the devil.

Everything has its meaning, its time and its appropriate opportunity. The notion of fear is good for the first spiritual steps. It is for beginners, for those in whom the old man still lives. Such a man, a beginner, who is not yet spiritually refined, overcomes the tendency towards evil with the help of fear. We need fear while we are attached to matter and while we are spiritually crawling on the ground. But that is, let's say, the initial stage, it is a low degree of relationship with the Deity.

To aid in your outreach, here is a listing of the addresses and phone numbers of our Homebound:

Jeanette Brayan @ Serene Gardens	1481 E Hill Rd room MC-6	Grand Blanc, MI 48439
Paul Ellis @ Flat Rock Manor of Goodrich N	7280 S. State Rd.	Goodrich, MI 48438 *New address

Diane Todorovsky	14182 Moffett Dr	Fenton, MI 48430	810-750-7860

It's as if we're going to a store, to an exchange of services, so that we don't deserve heaven or get rid of the torment in hell. If we think a little better, such a relationship contains a certain self-sufficiency, a certain interest. I don't like that approach. When a person progresses spiritually and enters the love of God, then what is his fear? Whatever he does, he does it out of love, and that has a much greater value than fear. To be good because of the fear of God, and not out of love for Him – there is no value in that.

If we go further, we discover that the Gospel also lets us know that Christ is joy and truth, that Christ is paradise. What does the evangelist John say? "There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for in fear there is torment: but he that feareth is not made perfect in love "(1 John 4:18). Working in the fear of God on the way of salvation, we gradually enter into the love of God. Then hell disappears, fear disappears, death We are only interested in the love of God We do everything for that love – as a bridegroom for a bride.

If we want to follow Christ, this life on earth will be our joy with Christ, regardless of the difficulties. In this regard, the apostle Paul says: I rejoice in my sufferings. That is our religion. We should go in that direction. It does not consist so much of formal obligations as of the determination to live with Christ. When you can do that, what else would you like? You got it all. You live with Christ, and Christ lives in you. Everything is then very easy – obedience, calmness, peace of mind." pp 104-105

"…This is the way we should see Christ. He is our friend, our brother; He is whatever is good and beautiful. He is everything. Yet, He is still a friend and He shouts it out, "You're my friends, don't you understand that? We're brothers. I'm not… I don't hold hell in my hands. I am not threatening you. I love you. I want you to enjoy life together with me." Elder Porphyrios Testimonies and Experiences, p 44
